

Frogs and Toads of North Carolina

Compiled by David George and Brian Bockhahn, 2023

Marbles clicking slow

Eastern Cricket Frog

Marbles clicking fast

Southern Cricket Frog

Brimley's Chorus Frog

Comb - very fast

Upland Chorus Frog

Comb - fast

Comb - slow

Southern Chorus Frog

Busy quiet cricket

Little Grass Frog

Ping - spoon on empty glass

Ornate Grass Frog

Peep-peep-peep

Spring Peeper

Fast trill

Gray Treefrog

Fast trill

Cope's Gray Treefrog

Queenk-queenk

Green Treefrog

Ban-ban-ban

Pine Barrens Treefrog

Barking Treefrog

Cowbell - muffled horn

Pine Woods Treefrog

Morse code

Squirrel Treefrog

Ank, ank, ank

American Bullfrog

Jug-a-rum

Southern Leopard Frog

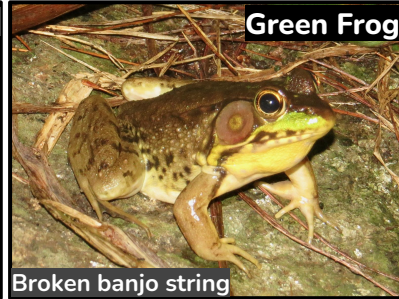

Rubbing balloon

Duck-like quacks

Wood Frog

Green Frog

Broken banjo string

Snore or growl

Gopher Frog

Snnnoooooorrrr

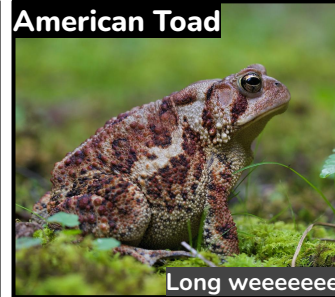

Pickerel Frog

Hammer on board

Carpenter Frog

American Toad

Long weeeeeeee

Fowler's Toad

Weeeeeee

Southern Toad

Trill - short, high pitch

Chick peeps

Oak Toad

Eastern Narrow-mouthed Toad

Wheaeaeaeaeae

Eastern Spadefoot

Waaah - descending

Images from the Amphibians of NC website. Image authors: Jim Petranka, Steve Hall, Mark Shields, Randy Newman, Ed Corey, John Petranka, Jeff Beane, J. Mickey, Matthew Moskwik, and Tom Ward. Available for non-commercial and educational use with attribution.